10th August 1971.

Dear Mr. Grant,

You will recall the recordings made on 1st April by the Led Zeppelin, remixed to your satisfaction at Kensington House on May 11th. Since then we have made numerous attempts by telephone and by letter asking you to hear the finished result. Having made every possible effort, I feel we must now assume your consent to the release of our transcription, as we have always been entitled to do. We will, of course, use only the material approved at the original editing session.

I am prepared to hold back the recordings for a further 7 days, until 17th August. If by then you have not actually heard the tapes we will assume you no longer wish to do so.

Yours sincerely,

(L.D. Constable)
