

APPENDIX D

WRITTEN SUBMISSIONS

We welcomed written submissions from any organisation or individual.

In addition, to ensure a wide cross-section of opinion was considered, some representative organisations were contacted and invited to submit their views by giving written evidence, or oral evidence over two days in February 2007.

The following organisations were invited to contribute written evidence.

CBI

Institute of Directors

Northern Ireland Chamber of Commerce

North-East Chamber of Commerce

Wales Chamber of Commerce

Scotland Chamber of Commerce

Birmingham Chamber of Commerce

London Chamber of Commerce

Federation of Small Businesses

British Retail Consortium

Scottish Retail Consortium

Association of British Insurers

Henderson Global Investors

The National Federation of Women's Institutes

Ofwat

Ofgem

ACAS

Commission for Racial Equality

Stonewall

Parcelforce Worldwide

Network Rail

Advantage West Midlands

Scottish Enterprise

Department for Enterprise, Innovation and Networks, Welsh Assembly Government

Invest Northern Ireland

Pensions Investment Research Consultants Ltd

The National Business Awards

National Council for Graduate Entrepreneurship

London Stock Exchange

Trades Union Congress

Unison

Amicus

T & G

GMB

USDAW

The Work Foundation

Investors in People UK

Adam Smith Institute

Social Market Foundation

National Institute of Economic and Social Research

Centre for Economic Policy Research

Institute of Public Policy Research

Centre for Policy Studies

Cause and Effect
 Said Business School
 Manchester Business School
 Caledonian Business School
 London Business School
 Judge Business School
 National Consumer Council
 Consumers Association
 Citizens Advice
 Friends of the Earth
 Traidcraft
 Institute of Development Studies
 Greenpeace
 Black Enterprise

The following organisations and individuals contributed to the review either by letter or telephone:

Invest Northern Ireland
 Federation of Small Businesses
 CBI
 British Retail Consortium
 Scottish Retail Consortium
 Birmingham Chamber of Commerce
 Centre for Policy Studies
 John Cole, former BBC Political Editor
 C John Brady
 Friends of the Earth
 Institute of Development Studies
 The National Business Awards
 Scottish Enterprise
 T and G
 National Institute of Economic and Social Research
 Henderson Global Investors
 ACAS
 Commission for Racial Equality
 London Business School
 London Stock Exchange
 Sir John Sunderland, Non-Executive Chairman, Cadbury Schweppes
 Val Gooding, Chief Executive, BUPA
 KPMG
 Diageo
 Ofwat
 Reuters

A range of organisations and individuals including some who had featured in recent BBC coverage were invited to attend the oral evidence session held on 7th February:

Abi Associates Ltd
 Amicus
 Aurora
 Aviva
 BP

British Bankers' Association
 John Cole, former BBC Political Editor
 Ethical Trading Initiative
 Friends of the Earth
 Glaxo Smith Kline
 Marks and Spencer
 National Federation of Enterprise Agencies
 David Pitt-Watson, co-author of The New Capitalists
 Jeff Randall, Editor at Large, Daily Telegraph
 Sainsbury
 Redhotcurry Ltd
 Thames Water
 Tesco
 TUC
 Centrica
 Work Foundation
 Greg Dyke

The following people attended an oral evidence session on Wednesday February 7th:

John Cole, former BBC Political Editor
 George Derbyshire, National Federation of Enterprise Agencies
 Jack Dromey, Andrew Dodgshon, T and G
 Greg Dyke
 Linda Holbeche, The Work Foundation
 Tony Juniper, Craig Bennett, Friends of the Earth
 Angela Knight, British Bankers' Association
 Frances O'Grady, TUC
 David Pitt-Watson, co-author of The New Capitalists
 Jeff Randall, Editor at Large, Daily Telegraph

The BBC made a written submission and the following BBC staff gave evidence to the Panel:

Robert Peston, Business Editor
 Evan Davis, Economics Editor
 Peter Eustace, Editor, Business Programmes (TV), Economics and Business Centre
 Julian Bailey, Editor, Business Programmes (Radio), Economics and Business Centre
 Piers Parry-Crooke, Assignments Editor, Economics and Business Centre
 Pete Clifton, Head of BBC News Interactive
 Ceri Thomas, Editor, Today
 Craig Oliver, Editor, Ten O'Clock News
 Helen Boaden, Director, BBC News
 Mark Byford, Deputy Director General
 Pat Loughrey, Director, Nations and Regions
 Daniel Dodd, Editor, Economics and Business Centre