

Name _____

Class _____

- Match the word from the word bank below to the correct picture

Word Bank

Dirty Environment Heavy Industry Skilled workers Modern
 Highly paid Pollution Computerised Inner City
Hi-tech Manual Workers Many Workers Low Paid Clean

- Use the words and phrases to help you describe the differences between the two types of industry.

Name _____ Class _____

- Describe what is meant by the three job categories.

Primary jobs involve _____

Secondary jobs involve _____

Tertiary jobs involve _____

- Put the following jobs into the correct category.

Primary

Secondary

Tertiary

Word Bank

Steel Worker Bank Clerk Teacher Scaffolder Lumberjack Joiner
Fisherman Cattle farmer Nurse Bricklayer Doctor
Worker in a car plant Industrial Operative Lawyer Quarry worker Cashier

- Which type of job would you most like to have and why?

Name _____

Class _____

- Manufacturing Industry can be thought of as a system. There are inputs, processes and outputs. In other words raw materials and manufactured products are needed; work is done to them and the final product is obtained. What would be the inputs, processes and outputs for a bag of crisps (some have been done for you)?

Inputs
Oil

Electricity

Processes

Washing

Slicing

Outputs
Potato Skin

- Could you make up a systems diagram for another industry that you know?

Inputs

Processes

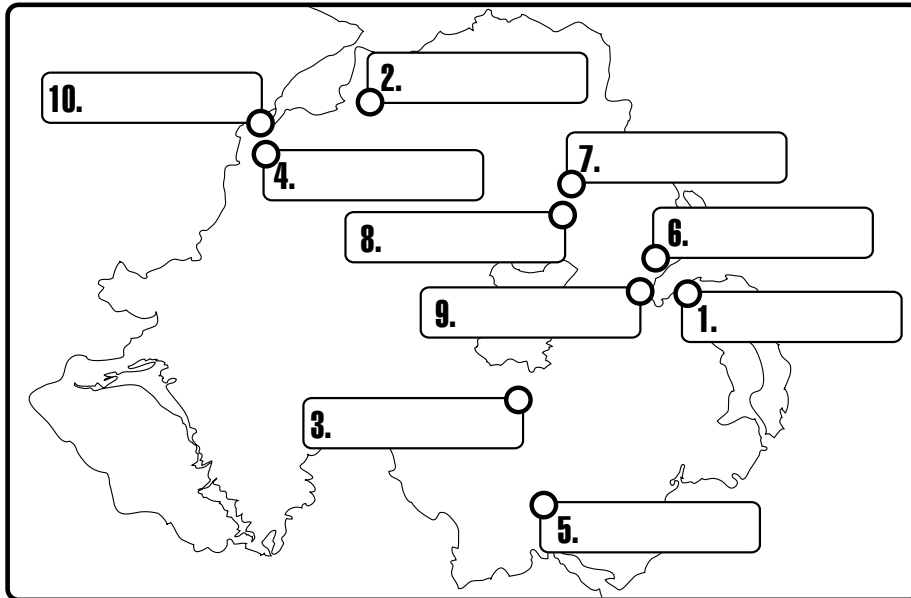

Outputs

Name _____

Class _____

- Using the map below locate the ten leading companies in Northern Ireland. Name the company and the location.

- For each of the companies state three facts - amount of profit made, number of employees - whatever you choose you will need to go back to the website to find this information.

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.

8.

9.

10.

Name _____

Class _____

- Imagine you are a personnel manager working for Seagate. You want to recruit workers for the Limavady plant. Design a job advertisement that contains.....
 - information on what Seagate does...
 - what jobs are available...
 - what skills people should have...
 - what the future would hold for employees in Seagate.

"Seagate Has Vacancies"

What we do:

A job for you:

We need people who:

Your future is with us: