

The Big Question - Activity 7

Writing frame for a group of four pupils considering big questions.

Select a topic ~ it might be questions about death, life's purpose, suffering or God. Show the sequence, then put students in 4s to use this frame. It helps them see diversity in views, articulate their own ideas and use the ideas from the video clip.

Student A	One question I'd like to consider about this topic is...
Student B	My answer to A's question is...
Student C	I've read what B said. Here's a different point of view...
Student D	I've read what B and C think. But some evidence and ideas they've missed out are relevant...
Student A	The most significant things about the answers to my question are... What I want to say is...
